Hey Angel,
Happy to write something about your amazing coaching,

“Running events has always been part of my job, but I’ve felt that there was always something missing or it could have been done better. Since having Deb work with me and coach me in my events, I have had comments from management such as “This is the most professional event I’ve ever been to” and “You’ve raised the bar for all future events”.

I have learnt so much from Deb, such as how to “manage” the event, not lose my mind trying to do it all during the event. Deb’s post event feedback report is what I look forward to most, as it’s an amazing tool to which I use for all of my up and coming events. It is an invaluable learning tool.

Deb’s coaching has taken me from an EA running average events, to an EA who is also a confident Event Manager who is running professional events.”

How does that sound?? (and every word of it is true!)
Tam
